

Dear Prospective Crazy Wisdom Practitioner-

Thank you for your interest in becoming a practitioner in the Crazy Wisdom Tea Room, and for wanting to share your talent with the Crazy Wisdom Community.

Practitioners must meet certain criteria to be considered for a time slot in the Tea Room. Before you are able to pursue a reading shift, please be able to answer "Yes" to the following questions:

- Have you been practicing your craft for at least five years?
- Are you able to give accurate readings without the use of a reference book or notes?
- Do you give readings to others outside your immediate family and friends?
- Do you feel comfortable marketing yourself and your particular skill?
- Would you consider yourself a "people person"?

If you can confidently answer "Yes" to all of the above statements, please read below for important information regarding our practitioner program procedure and expectations:

1. All of our practitioners commit to a four-month schedule that coincides with our Crazy Wisdom Community Journal (January-April, May-August, September-December). No changes can be made during the schedule period.
2. Table rental is $15 per 3-hour shift. Payment for the four-month schedule is due at least one month before the schedule begins. For example, those who are scheduled twice per month for May through August would be expected to pay their deposit of $120 on the first of April. No refunds are given in the event of a cancelled shift.
3. In addition to the table rental fee, practitioners pay Crazy Wisdom 30% of their monthly earnings once they have earned enough to pay the monthly table rental fee.
4. Practitioners are expected to generate their own in-store signage and build a clientele while at the store.
5. Practitioners receive free advertising in the Crazy Wisdom Community Journal and on the Crazy Wisdom website calendar.

Many of our practitioners have been with us for a very long time and have found this arrangement to be a beneficial, profitable and rewarding experience. If this sounds like something that you are interested in please get in touch with Bill at bill@crazywisdom.net

Thank you!
